June, 2021

Greenable Topic

Arts

What should I know?

⇒ The Avenel Performing Arts Center (APAC) is a multi-disciplinary performing arts center located in the heart of Avenel. Funded by the Woodbridge Arts Alliance (a 501c3), APAC offers tremendous programming and exceptional professional theatre, music, comedy, dance and more. To learn more and for tickets to upcoming shows this month visit: avenelarts.com

⇒ The Mayor's summer concert series offers five nights a week of FREE outdoor concerts! Whether you like oldies, country, classic rock, folk, jazz, Americana, you'll find music you love in Woodbridge!

Why is it important?

⇒ T he connection between art and sustainability resides in vision, purpose, and character which helps communities to think holistically about our natural world and social responsibility. Art can tell impactful stories in many ways, through a variety mediums, and touch all different aspects of our daily life.

⇒ Community-based arts builds relationships and improves mental health. Art alike sustainability; helps to shape the future of our societal well-being and brings people together.

How can I get involved?

⇒ Are you a local artist? Do you have ideas about how to enhance arts and sustainability in Woodbridge? Take our Creative Assets Survey! Visit: www.twp.woodbridge.nj.us/548/Arts-in-Woodbridge

⇒ Woodbridge is an arts destination! The position of artists, creative entrepreneurs and associated entities have helped build programming all year! Check-out the Woodbridge Artisan Guild (WAG) located on Main Street in Downtown Woodridge for classes and showcases!

Reminders!

⇒ FREE Mayor's Summer Concert Series kick's-off on June 21st on the Woodbridge High School Concert Field! Visit: www.woodbridgeartsnj.org – please bring non-perishable food items for our food banks.

⇒ The Barron Arts Center is a National Historic Place. The Center hosts renowned programming all year! For gallery hours and a full schedule of events, visit: www.twp.woodbridge.nj.us/150/Barron-Arts-Center